

The KidzBANK Program Benefits Everyone

Students get practice on real life technology applications.

Students learn about financial literacy.

Financial institutions build customer relationships to serve students through college.

Students learn about their financial institutions and how they work.

Financial institutions and schools create a partnership in education.

Financial institution introduces career opportunities.

Financial institutions make civic contributions and comply with CRA.

Negative savings trends are reversed in the U.S.

